

Registration is open for the Symposium on

The Role of the Conservator and Resilience

15 - 16 April 2026

Time: 12.00 -13.00 (lunch), 13.00 - 17.00 and social diner 19.00 CET 15 April
09.00 - 17.00 CET 16 April

Location: Online/ On-site in Vasaparken, University of Gothenburg, Sweden

NKF-S/IIC Nordic Group Sweden have invited Professor Jane Hendersson and Professor Salvador Muñoz-Viñas for a symposium and conversation on the future role of the conservator and the conservation profession.

More information and speakers will be available soon on <http://www.nkf-s.se/conservator-resilience.html>

Themes

- Why do we do conservation? From the outside, through the core, to the essence of conservation
- Conservation, education and research
- Who is a conservator and what is its competence?
- The responsibility for conservation, the need for a Governing Body

Registration is open!

Syskonen Bothéns stiftelse

WELCOME!

Lisa Swedberg, Chair NKF-S FIIC nkfschair@gmail.com.

Sara Roberts, Head of Conservation, Studio Västsvensk konservering.

Nina Olivier, Paintings Conservator at Nordiska museet.

Johanna Nilsson, Assistant Head of Department and Senior Lecturer, Department of Conservation, University of Gothenburg